Press Release

June 1, 2017

iLevel Management Inc. is pleased to announce Jeanette Sousa has joined the iLevel Management team as our marketing assistant.

Jeanette draws from her broad experience in holistic nutrition and working in marketing health and wellness products for over 10 years. She has worked in both marketing business to business and online direct to consumer. She has an extensive skill set that will allow our brands to develop and execute integrated marketing strategies and campaigns.

Please join us in welcoming Jeanette to our team.
